International students are exempt from paying tuition fees if they are citizens of an EU/EEA member state, if they have a German higher-education entrance qualification (Abitur) or if they are enrolled in the scope of a bilateral exchange programme.

Students (of all nationalities) who start a second degree programme (Zweitstudium) must pay tuition fees of EUR 650. Zweitstudium means you have already completed a study programme in Germany. Further information can be found at
